

Oxford 4-H Dairy Judging Workshop

Saturday, May 27, 2017

10 am - 3 pm

Up-Ridge Holsteins – 377060 County Rd. 6, Embro

Why?

- This workshop is the first of two workshops, designed to build confidence and develop dairy judging skills for Ontario 4-H members.
- Gain confidence in giving reasons in a group setting
- Develop appropriate vocabulary, terminology and pacing to improve the quality of your reasons

Who should attend?

- The workshop is open to all Oxford 4-H members as well as 4-H members from other clubs/counties in the surrounding area.
- Anyone wishing to improve the quality of their judging skills
- Anyone wishing to participate at the Inter-County Judging Competition

Format?

- The workshop is being organized by Dean Karn, a Holstein Canada Level 3 judge. Dean has also been the coach of the Oxford Inter-County Judging team for many years.
- Dean will be joined by other Level 1 and 2 judges that have been 4-H members and participated in the Inter-County Judging Competition, as well as members of the Madison Dairy Judging Team.
- Participants will work in groups and rotate through stations.
- There will be lots of time for discussion and feedback.
- This workshop will be followed up by a second workshop prior to the Inter-County Judging Competition.
